

The Brokerforce Difference

With over 50 years of experience in church and mission insurance, Brokerforce understands that service is the heartbeat of any ministry.

We are committed to offer the same level of service to our churches and missions that you show to your community and congregation. We believe in personal contact with our clients in order to best assess the specific needs of your organizations.

Through strong relationships with our companies, we are able to provide the highest quality protection at competitive pricing. With coverage available from coast to coast across Canada, we are right beside you protecting you and your ministry.
